

BY H. W. SEVERANCE.

On Tuesday, - - - Feb. 20,
At 12 O'clock, M., at Sales Room,
The Undersigned will sell at Public Auction,
for Account of whom it may Concern;
The Hawaiian Steamer KILAUEA!
111 Tons per Register or Thereabouts.
As she now lies stranded at Kaula, together with all her
Machinery, Masts, Yards, Anchors,
Chains and Rigging.
Now remaining on Board, including
2 Boats, with oars; Handspikes, Chain Hooks, 2 Buckets, Hawser, Stove, Firebricks, 1 Hammer, 1 Saw,
1 Axe, Fish Hooks for anchors, 1 Lead Line,
House on Deck, 1 Cabin Table and Seats,
4 Iron Bunkers with Bunks and Fills as are, &c. &c.
H. W. SEVERANCE, Auctioneer.
N. B.—Particulars of the state of the KILAUEA may be ascertained by the copy of the Surveyor's Report to be seen at the Auction Room.

On Wednesday, - - - Feb. 21st,
At 10 o'clock, A. M., will be sold at Sales
Room of the undersigned
INVOICES
GENERAL MERCHANDISE!
Groceries, Tobacco, Rice,
Crockery, Dry Goods, Woodware,
Matches, Cigars, Tea,
&c., &c., &c.
H. W. SEVERANCE, Auctioneer.

Household Furniture!
AT AUCTION.
On TUESDAY - - - Feb. 27th,
AT 10 O'CLOCK, A. M.,
At the Residence of H. W. Severance, Fort St.
Will be sold:
All the Furniture of the House!
Consisting of
Cottage Piano Forte, Rosewood case,
Sofas, Tables, Chairs, Bureaus, Lounges,
Ecc. Bedsteads, Hair Mattresses, Wardrobe, Pictures,
Dining Table, Secretary, Whistling, Game Seat Chairs,
Wardrobe, Crockery and Glassware,
KITCHEN FURNITURE, BATH TUB, HOSE,
And a Variety of Household Articles.

STEAMSHIP LINE!
FOR SAN FRANCISCO.
The Cal. Steam Nav. Co.'s Fine Steamship

"AJAX!"
Will return to this port and is expected to sail hence for San Francisco, on or about,
The 20th of March next.
This vessel has splendid accommodations for passengers and offers great inducements to shippers of FRUIT and other Island Products.
Liberal Cash Advances made on Freight.
Merchandise will be received and stored free of charge at any time prior to the return of the steamer and advances made thereon.
Bills of Lading will be supplied at the Office of the Agents.
For freight or passage apply to
C. BREWER & CO.,
Agents Cal. Ste. Nav. Co.

Hawaiian Packet Line
FOR
SAN FRANCISCO.
THE AT CLIPPER BARK
Smyrniote
CHARLES J. LOVETT, Commander.
WILL SAIL FOR THE ABOVE PORT
THIS DAY, Feb. 17th!
For freight or passage, having superior accommodations for cabin and stowage passengers.
Apply to
WALKER, ALLEN & Co.,
Agents.
Agents at San Francisco,
Messrs. Chas. W. Brooks & Co. 509-3t.

Hawaiian Packet Line
FOR
SAN FRANCISCO.
THE AT CLIPPER BARK
Onward
D. HEMPHREY, Commander.
Will sail for the above port on or about
Saturday, Feb. 24th!
For freight or passage having superior accommodations for
cabin and stowage passengers.
Apply to
WALKER ALLEN & Co.
Messrs. Chas. W. Brooks & Co. 509-3t.

FOR SAN FRANCISCO.
The American Clipper Bark
ETHAN ALLEN!
SNOW, Master.
Will be dispatched for the above port
Positively on Saturday, Feb. 24,
For freight or Passage apply to
C. L. RICHARDS & Co.
Agents at San Francisco,
Messrs. Chas. W. Brooks & Co. 509-3t.

Regular Dispatch Line
FOR
SAN FRANCISCO!
THE AMERICAN CLIPPER BARK
Comet,
Capt. ANDREW FULLER.
WILL HAVE QUICK DISPATCH.
For freight or passage apply to
H. HACKFELD & CO.
HONOLULU, Feb. 1st, 1896.
MR. L. BARTLETT of this CITY HAS been situated as a partner in our line.
C. BREWER & CO. 507-3t.

ED. HOFFSCHLAECER & CO.,
Importers and Commission Merchants, corner of Fort and Merchant Sts., Honolulu, Hawaiian Islands. 507-3t

BY J. H. COLE.

On Thursday, - - - Feb. 22d,
At 10 o'clock, A. M., at Sales Room,
Will be sold:
AN ASSORTMENT OF Merchandise!
On Saturday, - - - Feb. 24th,
AT 12 O'CLOCK, NOON.
The Undersigned will sell at his Sales Room,
Honolulu, for Account of whom it may Concern:
The Wreck of the
HAWAIIAN SCH. ANNE LAURIE!
Including: 2 Anchors, 1 Kedge and 2 Chains, Iron Ballast, &c.
As they now lay at Koloa, Kauai.
Also, the Following Articles!
Saved from the wreck of the ANNE LAURIE,
now on shore at Koloa.
1 Large Boat, with 5 cars and cowboys, 1 Main Boom,
1 Main Gaff, 1 Square Sail Yard, 1 Tackle, with 2 Bunks,
1 Grappling Iron, 1 Rubber.
Also, the Following Articles!
Saved from the wreck of the ANNE LAURIE
and brought to Honolulu:
1 Mainmast, 1 Foremast, 1 Jib,
1 Square Mast, 1 Main Mast, 1 Water Cask,
1 Harrow, 1 Pot Cask, 1 Wheel and Tiller,
4 Provision Baskets, 1 Iron Safe, 1 Clock,
1 Looking Glass, 1 Telescope,
2 Compasses,
2 Binnacle Lamps,
1 Hawaiian Flag,
3 Bed Curtains, 2 Bed Sheets,
2 Case Stools, 1 Signal Lamp,
3 Blankets, 1 Tea Pot, 1 Coffee Pot,
1 Cooking Stove and Kettles,
Knives, Forks, Crockery, &c.
11 inch Manila Rope, 50 fathoms,
Sawing Running Rigging, Blocks, &c., &c.
J. H. COLE, Auctioneer.

FOR HONKONG!
The A 1 Bremen Bark
Libelle!
A. TOBIAS, Master.
Will have IMMEDIATE DISPATCH for the above port.
For Freight and Passage apply to
H. HACKFELD & Co.
Hawaiian Steam and

GENERAL INTER-ISLAND NAV. CO.
The Fine Schooner
Onward,
LAMBERT, Master.
Will continue for the present in the Kawaihae Trade!
-THE-Albani,
CLARK, Master.
100 tons register, will run for the present
To KOLOA and WAIMEA, Kauai.
The Clipper Schooner
Nettie Merrill!
FOUNTAIN, Master.
Will run as a regular packet to Lahaina and Maalaea Bay.
For particulars apply to
Capt. FRANK MOLTENO,
Or JANION, GREEN & Co.,
Agents H. S. and G. I. L. N. Co.

NOTICE.
FAIRBANKS STANDARD PLANTATION BEAMS, and
Hay, Coal, Grain, Warehouse,
Grocers, Druggists, Butchers, and Bankers Scales!
Of all Capacities and Dimensions.
AT THE MANUFACTURER'S BRANCH HOUSE ON THE PACIFIC COAST.
FAIRBANKS & HUTCHINSON.
334 Montgomery St., San Francisco.
Send for an Illustrated Catalogue. 507-3m

THE STORE NOW OCCUPIED BY
F. HORN, on King Street, two doors from Nuanua St.
Inquire of
F. HORN.
FOR RENT.
THAT DESIRABLE HOUSE ON EM-
MA SQUARE, containing six rooms and servants' room bath-house, stable, &c.
Apply to
J. W. AUSTIN.
Honolulu, Jan. 27, 1896. 506-3m

House to Rent!
IN NUANUA VALLEY, TWO AND a half miles from town. For particulars apply to
C. E. WILLIAMS, Honolulu.
Or J. H. WOOD.
504-4t

The Foundry Business, HERETOFORE CARRIED ON UNDER the name of THOMAS HUGHES, will from this date be carried on under the name of
The Honolulu Iron Works Company!
All communications or applications for machinery, for tenders, contracts, or for information connected with the business, may be addressed to
THOMAS HUGHES, Manager,
Or to JANION, GREEN & Co., Agents.
THOMAS HUGHES.
Honolulu, Jan. 1st, 1896 506-2m

VALUABLE LAND
For Sale!
THE VALUABLE AND PLEASANTLY
LOCATED LAND
"Moakea," on Molokai!
Is offered for sale for the purpose of closing the estate of the late Captain THOMAS KING.
The land is situated on the Eastern end of Molokai and contains 1500 acres, more or less about 500 acres of which are excellent Cane Land. The land extends from the mountain to the sea, a small island off the coast belongs to the land, and there is a landing for boats and a fishing right. A fine stream of water runs through the land and there is an abundance of WOOD on the estate.
This is one of the finest locations on the group, giving a splendid view of the channels and the open sea to the northward and is only offered for sale to close the estate.
For particulars apply to
FRANK MOLTENO,
Executive and Administrator,
Or to PETER H. THERIAULT, Lehi, Hawaii.
506-3m

THE UNDERSIGNED FORMERLY PROPRIETOR OF THE ALDRICH HOUSE, begs to inform the CITIZENS OF HONOLULU!
-AND THE-
TRAVELLING PUBLIC GENERALLY.
That he has taken the well known premises on Brylants street, recently occupied by the British Commissioner, which he will in a few days open as a
FIRST CLASS HOTEL!
The accommodations are ample, there being numerous sleeping rooms, the situation airy, and the fine shrubbery and shade trees on the premises will make it a pleasant retreat.
The proprietor trusts that his previous reputation gained in the management of the "Aldrich House," will be a sufficient guarantee that he will still continue to merit a share of the public patronage.
No pains or expense will be spared in providing the guests with all the delicacies as well as the suite that the market affords.
507-3m
M. KIRCHHOFF.

AMERICAN HOUSE!
The undersigned is indebted to Mr. William G. Irwin, the gentlemanly and energetic book-keeper at Messrs. Walker, Allen & Co.'s, for the cargo and passengers of the bark Smyrniote, which sails today for San Francisco.

STEAMER SALE.—The Kilauea, with all her machinery and fixtures, as she now lies on the reef at Kaula, will be sold at public auction in this city on Tuesday next, on account of the undersigned.

FURNITURE SALE.—The furniture of H. W. Severance, Esq., will be sold at auction on Tuesday, the 27th inst., at his residence in Fort street. Judging from the high prices obtained at the last sale, furniture is in active demand.

THE KINGDOM OF HAWAII is confessedly one of the smallest of the independent empires of Christendom, yet it really has attained to a comparatively high position amongst the family of nations. To retain that position, at least, if not to make further advance, ought assuredly to be the earnest endeavor, not only of His Majesty the King and his native-born subjects, but also of all foreigners who have made this their residence; and everything which can, in the most remote degree, tend to its derogation from that position ought to be most scrupulously and carefully avoided—more especially amongst high officials, where any infringement of that rule must be more conspicuous and proportionally more damaging to the dignity of the Crown and the status of the Kingdom.

LONG PASSAGES.—Both the Onward and the Libelle had long passages down, though the latter distanced her competitor four days. The D. C. Mercury had not arrived at San Francisco up to the 24th of January—21 days out from this port. But at this season of the year the winds are variable and less reliable than during the prevalence of the trades. The Mercury will probably be the first mail packet due, and ought to arrive here by the 25th inst., bringing the New York mails of January 1st and 11th. The Italian ship Torino and the British ship Little Maria were soon to sail for Hongkong, but there is no certainty of their touching at this port.

A CORRECTION.—It gives us pleasure to state that Mr. Alex. E. McGregor, formerly overseer of the Princeville Plantation, arrived at San Francisco in the last steamer from Panama, in improved health, showing that the statement made in this paper some weeks ago, that he had died in London, was incorrect. The information before given regarding him was received in a letter from England by Mr. McGregor's agent at Honolulu, who had evidently been deceived by some mischievous person.

GOOD LIVING.—Is essential to enjoyment and the indefatigable laborer is determined not to be behind the times in the Restaurant line will be seen by our advertising columns. He is out again as large as ever, and no doubt can do what he promises to. Give him a call at the Europa Restaurant on Hotel street, and there you will find every thing neat and tidy as a lady's boudoir, with a most tempting bill of fare to choose from.

CHOICE GRAPE CUTTINGS.—By the Ajane Mr. Severance received some choice slips of the Fisher Sagos grape, from the celebrated Nuanua vineyard, El Dorado County. This variety is one of the finest flavored, of white translucent color, large size and oblong in shape. They are the only true raisin grape to be had on the coast, and at the fair for four years past have invariably taken the premium. Those wishing cuttings of it, can obtain them at the auction room at $1.50 per dozen.

THE PACIFIC Commercial Advertiser.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 17.
NOTES OF THE WEEK.
MADAME BISHOP and Mr. Lascelles leave for China in the bark Libelle next week, and will give only one more concert here before their departure. They purpose visiting the principal places in China, and perhaps Japan, and will then proceed to Australia, and perhaps New Zealand and Valparaiso—a long journey, but for a person so well and favorably known as is Madame Bishop, it must be a pleasant one, for everywhere she meets those who have heard or known her before. On our fourth page we print a biographical sketch of her.

—It was her intention to have had a concert early the past week, but the unpleasant weather interfered with the plan, and owing to the arrival of the vessel in which she engaged passage, she can give only one farewell benefit concert this evening, at Smith's Church, which will be fitted up appropriately for her use. Application was made for the use of the Kawaiahae Stone Church, but the trustees declined to open it, as on the occasion of the last concert great damage was done to the seats and furniture. Madame Bishop has tried the qualities of Smith's Church, and finds it admirably adapted for vocal music. Front seats will be reserved for ladies and gentlemen at one dollar per ticket. We trust that on this occasion, her farewell benefit—she will be greeted with a full house, and that all who have not heard her will now do so, and all who have need no urging to attend this final concert. She will be assisted by Mr. Lascelles, the infatigable humorist and fine pianist, and the programme issued promises a treat which will not recur for many a month. Our citizens have certainly enjoyed a musical feast during her stay here, and wherever she may travel all will wish her and her party pleasant voyages.

—Last week an order was issued by the American Consul, at the request of the Captain of the clipper ship Blue Jacket, for the arrest of one Thomas Duane, for being ashore without permission, and one Thomas Burns was arrested by the police under the writ, and imprisoned. The next day Burns was brought before Justice Robertson on a writ of habeas corpus, and the prisoner was discharged on the ground that he had never signed the shipping articles of that vessel, and was not legally attached to the ship. The court also remarked that there was no law of this kingdom or treaty stipulation which authorized the imprisonment of a seaman for "being ashore without permission," the law only applying to deserters and mutineers. After his release, Burns sued the Captain for damages for bringing him away from San Francisco, illegally as he claims, and for maltreatment on the passage hither. This suit is still pending.

—The Kingdom of Hawaii is confessedly one of the smallest of the independent empires of Christendom, yet it really has attained to a comparatively high position amongst the family of nations. To retain that position, at least, if not to make further advance, ought assuredly to be the earnest endeavor, not only of His Majesty the King and his native-born subjects, but also of all foreigners who have made this their residence; and everything which can, in the most remote degree, tend to its derogation from that position ought to be most scrupulously and carefully avoided—more especially amongst high officials, where any infringement of that rule must be more conspicuous and proportionally more damaging to the dignity of the Crown and the status of the Kingdom.

—His Majesty has seen fit to elevate to his Cabinet, members of learned professions, which they had practiced with eminent success, up to the time of their elevation, and from the ordinary practice of which they were presumed to have withdrawn on their acceptance of the portfolios of their offices, according to the invariable custom elsewhere. The acceptance of office is considered tantamount to an acceptance of the rules which govern it.

—Every one must certainly have witnessed the universal astonishment of our community on finding His Excellency, the present Minister of Finance, descending to the level of a "Sea-Lawyer," in which capacity he has appeared before a branch of the Supreme Court, during the present week, in the defence of what the Court decided to be a gross wrong. May we not expect to find him, next week, defending charges of drunkenness, furious riding, and other offences, which occupy the Court? Who can surmise where his cupidity may draw the line of demarkation?

—The question naturally suggests itself, what must be the effect abroad of such conduct on the part of a Cabinet Minister? Must it not seriously damage the dignity of his Royal Master, who will, of course, be presumed to concede to his Minister the privilege of private practice of his original profession as an equivalent for that remuneration which it will be supposed His Majesty is not in a position adequately to pay?

—Most assuredly His Excellency should remember that there are other considerations which ought to influence his conduct besides the mere "love of gain," and we are much mistaken if both his colleagues, and their Sovereign, do not call upon him to make a selection—either to devote himself to the important duties of his high office, or to resign his portfolio to some one more capable of appreciating the position and maintaining the dignity of the office, which his conduct is so effectually tarnishing.

—Low intense would be the disgust of the late Foreign Minister, could he but witness how rapidly and effectually another Cabinet Minister is contributing to the demolition of that fabric which he was so eminently instrumental in erecting.

—From a private letter, received from Mr. Coan, since our last issue, we extract a few paragraphs which refer to the visit of the Lancaster, and which will interest our readers:

HILA, JANUARY 18, 1896.
We have had a very pleasant visit from Admiral Pearson and lady, and with their daughter, who all stopped with us while in port. They all seemed to like our own people. The Admiral very kindly allowed his hand to come on shore three times for the entertainment of the natives and foreigners. On the 16th we had a concert which passed off with great clat. Our meeting house was packed with natives and foreigners. The band played many stirring national airs, such as "Hail Columbia," "The Star-Spangled Banner," "Red, White and Blue," "Yankee Doodle," "John Brown," "Washington's March," etc., etc., closing with "Sweet Home."

—The Admiral and the Chaplain, Mr. McLaren, each made a happy address, which were received with delight by the large audience. The people were congratulated for the remarkable evidences of improvement in knowledge, civilization and Christianity. They were reminded of the source from whence all good has come down to them, and exhorted them to be diligent, thankful and faithful. The Admiral stated that he had nowhere seen better morals, more quiet and orderly society, more attentive and interesting congregations, or more evidences of sincere Christianity and true piety.

—The Chaplain alluded to the dark and solemn days of our American rebellion; to the awful and bloody war; to the time when the nation stood aguish with fear, and when many hearts sunk in despair; and to the glorious fact that the Lord Jehovah had appeared for our help, and brought us triumphantly through this sea of sorrow, of darkness and blood, and caused our flag again to wave over a broad land and a united people. Had, said he, our enemies triumphed, and our nation have been divided, and her cherished institutions subverted, I should, and many like me, have been ashamed to visit other nations under this dishonored symbol of Freedom.

—The Fenian trial was concluded at Cork on the 24, and several more prisoners were convicted and sentenced. The trials of the remainder were adjourned to the 25th, and many liberated on bail. John McAfferty and W. McKay, being aliens, were admitted on bail. The Judge told them if they would leave the country they would not be called upon for trial. These men were cheered through the streets by large crowds.

—The Emperor Napoleon gave his usual New Year's reception to the diplomatic body, and expressed his happiness that the past year had strengthened the bonds of peace, and was an augury for a long duration of peace and prosperity over the world.

—The Pope received the congratulations of the French army on the 1st inst. He returned his thanks, and said it would probably be the last time he could bestow his blessings on them. He feared the enemies of the Church would go to Rome after the departure of the French troops.

—The Fenian trial was concluded at Cork on the 24, and several more prisoners were convicted and sentenced. The trials of the remainder were adjourned to the 25th, and many liberated on bail. John McAfferty and W. McKay, being aliens, were admitted on bail. The Judge told them if they would leave the country they would not be called upon for trial. These men were cheered through the streets by large crowds.

—The Emperor Napoleon gave his usual New Year's reception to the diplomatic body, and expressed his happiness that the past year had strengthened the bonds of peace, and was an augury for a long duration of peace and prosperity over the world.

—The Fenian trial was concluded at Cork on the 24, and several more prisoners were convicted and sentenced. The trials of the remainder were adjourned to the 25th, and many liberated on bail. John McAfferty and W. McKay, being aliens, were admitted on bail. The Judge told them if they would leave the country they would not be called upon for trial. These men were cheered through the streets by large crowds.

—The Emperor Napoleon gave his usual New Year's reception to the diplomatic body, and expressed his happiness that the past year had strengthened the bonds of peace, and was an augury for a long duration of peace and prosperity over the world.

—The Pope received the congratulations of the French army on the 1st inst. He returned his thanks, and said it would probably be the last time he could bestow his blessings on them. He feared the enemies of the Church would go to Rome after the departure of the French troops.

—The Fenian trial was concluded at Cork on the 24, and several more prisoners were convicted and sentenced. The trials of the remainder were adjourned to the 25th, and many liberated on bail. John McAfferty and W. McKay, being aliens, were admitted on bail. The Judge told them if they would leave the country they would not be called upon for trial. These men were cheered through the streets by large crowds.

—The Emperor Napoleon gave his usual New Year's reception to the diplomatic body, and expressed his happiness that the past year had strengthened the bonds of peace, and was an augury for a long duration of peace and prosperity over the world.

—The Pope received the congratulations of the French army on the 1st inst. He returned his thanks, and said it would probably be the last time he could bestow his blessings on them. He feared the enemies of the Church would go to Rome after the departure of the French troops.

—The Fenian trial was concluded at Cork on the 24, and several more prisoners were convicted and sentenced. The trials of the remainder were adjourned to the 25th, and many liberated on bail. John McAfferty and W. McKay, being aliens, were admitted on bail. The Judge told them if they would leave the country they would not be called upon for trial. These men were cheered through the streets by large crowds.

—The Emperor Napoleon gave his usual New Year's reception to the diplomatic body, and expressed his happiness that the past year had strengthened the bonds of peace, and was an augury for a long duration of peace and prosperity over the world.

—The Pope received the congratulations of the French army on the 1st inst. He returned his thanks, and said it would probably be the last time he could bestow his blessings on them. He feared the enemies of the Church would go to Rome after the departure of the French troops.

—The Fenian trial was concluded at Cork on the 24, and several more prisoners were convicted and sentenced. The trials of the remainder were adjourned to the 25th, and many liberated on bail. John McAfferty and W. McKay, being aliens, were admitted on bail. The Judge told them if they would leave the country they would not be called upon for trial. These men were cheered through the streets by large crowds.

—The Emperor Napoleon gave his usual New Year's reception to the diplomatic body, and expressed his happiness that the past year had strengthened the bonds of peace, and was an augury for a long duration of peace and prosperity over the world.

—The Pope received the congratulations of the French army on the 1st inst. He returned his thanks, and said it would probably be the last time he could bestow his blessings on them. He feared the enemies of the Church would go to Rome after the departure of the French troops.

—The Fenian trial was concluded at Cork on the 24, and several more prisoners were convicted and sentenced. The trials of the remainder were adjourned to the 25th, and many liberated on bail. John McAfferty and W. McKay, being aliens, were admitted on bail. The Judge told them if they would leave the country they would not be called upon for trial. These men were cheered through the streets by large crowds.

—The Emperor Napoleon gave his usual New Year's reception to the diplomatic body, and expressed his happiness that the past year had strengthened the bonds of peace, and was an augury for a long duration of peace and prosperity over the world.

—The Pope received the congratulations of the French army on the 1st inst. He returned his thanks, and said it would probably be the last time he could bestow his blessings on them. He feared the enemies of the Church would go to Rome after the departure of the French troops.

—The Fenian trial was concluded at Cork on the 24, and several more prisoners were convicted and sentenced. The trials of the remainder were adjourned to the 25th, and many liberated on bail. John McAfferty and W. McKay, being aliens, were admitted on bail. The Judge told them if they would leave the country they would not be called upon for trial. These men were cheered through the streets by large crowds.

—The Emperor Napoleon gave his usual New Year's reception to the diplomatic body, and expressed his happiness that the past year had strengthened the bonds of peace, and was an augury for a long duration of peace and prosperity over the world.

—The Pope received the congratulations of the French army on the 1st inst. He returned his thanks, and said it would probably be the last time he could bestow his blessings on them. He feared the enemies of the Church would go to Rome after the departure of the French troops.

—The Fenian trial was concluded at Cork on the 24, and several more prisoners were convicted and sentenced. The trials of the remainder were adjourned to the 25th, and many liberated on bail. John McAfferty and W. McKay, being aliens, were admitted on bail. The Judge told them if they would leave the country they would not be called upon for trial. These men were cheered through the streets by large crowds.

—The Emperor Napoleon gave his usual New Year's reception to the diplomatic body, and expressed his happiness that the past year had strengthened the bonds of peace, and was an augury for a long duration of peace and prosperity over the world.

—The Fenian trial was concluded at Cork on the 24, and several more prisoners were convicted and sentenced. The trials of the remainder were adjourned to the 25th, and many liberated on bail. John McAfferty and W. McKay, being aliens, were admitted on bail. The Judge told them if they would leave the country they would not be called upon for trial. These men were cheered through the streets by large crowds.

—The Emperor Napoleon gave his usual New Year's reception to the diplomatic body, and expressed his happiness that the past year had strengthened the bonds of peace, and was an augury for a long duration of peace and prosperity over the world.

—The Pope received the congratulations of the French army on the 1st inst. He returned his thanks, and said it would probably be the last time he could bestow his blessings on them. He feared the enemies of the Church would go to Rome after the departure of the French troops.

—The Fenian trial was concluded at Cork on the 24, and several more prisoners were convicted and sentenced. The trials of the remainder were adjourned to the 25th, and many liberated on bail. John McAfferty and W. McKay, being aliens, were admitted on bail. The Judge told them if they would leave the country they would not be called upon for trial. These men were cheered through the streets by large crowds.

—The Emperor Napoleon gave his usual New Year's reception to the diplomatic body, and expressed his happiness that the past year had strengthened the bonds of peace, and was an augury for a long duration of peace and prosperity over the world.

—The Pope received the congratulations of the French army on the 1st inst. He returned his thanks, and said it would probably be the last time he could bestow his blessings on them. He feared the enemies of the Church would go to Rome after the departure of the French troops.

—The Fenian trial was concluded at Cork on the 24, and several more prisoners were convicted and sentenced. The trials of the remainder were adjourned to the 25th, and many liberated on bail. John McAfferty and W. McKay, being aliens, were admitted on bail. The Judge told them if they would leave the country they would not be called upon for trial. These men were cheered through the streets by large crowds.

—The Emperor Napoleon gave his usual New Year's reception to the diplomatic body, and expressed his happiness that the past year had strengthened the bonds of peace, and was an augury for a long duration of peace and prosperity over the world.

—The Pope received the congratulations of the French army on the 1st inst. He returned his thanks, and said it would probably be the last time he could bestow his blessings on them. He feared the enemies of the Church would go to Rome after the departure of the French troops.

—The Fenian trial was concluded at Cork on the 24, and several more prisoners were convicted and sentenced. The trials of the remainder were adjourned to the 25th, and many liberated on bail. John McAfferty and W. McKay, being aliens, were admitted on bail. The Judge told them if they would leave the country they would not be called upon for trial. These men were cheered through the streets by large crowds.

—The Emperor Napoleon gave his usual New Year's reception to the diplomatic body, and expressed his happiness that the past year had strengthened the bonds of peace, and was an augury for a long duration of peace and prosperity over the world.

—The Pope received the congratulations of the French army on the 1st inst. He returned his thanks, and said it would probably be the last time he could bestow his blessings on them. He feared the enemies of the Church would go to Rome after the departure of the French troops.

—The Fenian trial was concluded at Cork on the 24, and several more prisoners were convicted and sentenced. The trials of the remainder were adjourned to the 25th, and many liberated on bail. John McAfferty and W. McKay, being aliens, were admitted on bail. The Judge told them if they would leave the country they would not be called upon for trial. These men were cheered through the streets by large crowds.

—The Emperor Napoleon gave his usual New Year's reception to the diplomatic body, and expressed his happiness that the past year had strengthened the bonds of peace, and was an augury for a long duration of peace and prosperity over the world.

—The Pope received the congratulations of the French army on the 1st inst. He returned his thanks, and said it would probably be the last time he could bestow his blessings on them. He feared the enemies of the Church would go to Rome after the departure of the French troops.

—The Fenian trial was concluded at Cork on the 24, and several more prisoners were convicted and sentenced. The trials of the remainder were adjourned to the 25th, and many liberated on bail. John McAfferty and W. McKay, being aliens, were admitted on bail. The Judge told them if they would leave the country they would not be called upon for trial. These men were cheered through the streets by large crowds.

—The Emperor Napoleon gave his usual New Year's reception to the diplomatic body, and expressed his happiness that the past year had strengthened the bonds of peace, and was an augury for a long duration of peace and prosperity over the world.

—The Pope received the congratulations of the French army on the 1st inst. He returned his thanks, and said it would probably be the last time he could bestow his blessings on them. He feared the enemies of the Church would go to Rome after the departure of the French troops.

—The Fenian trial was concluded at Cork on the 24, and several more prisoners were convicted and sentenced. The trials of the remainder were adjourned to the 25th, and many liberated on bail. John McAfferty and W. McKay, being aliens, were admitted on bail. The Judge told them if they would leave the country they would not be called upon for trial. These men were cheered through the streets by large crowds.

—The Emperor Napoleon gave his usual New Year's reception to the diplomatic body, and expressed his happiness that the past year had strengthened the bonds of peace, and was an augury for a long duration of peace and prosperity over the world.

—The Fenian trial was concluded at Cork on the 24, and several more prisoners were convicted and sentenced. The trials of the remainder were adjourned to the 25th, and many liberated on bail. John McAfferty and W. McKay, being aliens, were admitted on bail. The Judge told them if they would leave the country they would not be called upon for trial. These men were cheered through the streets by large crowds.

—The Emperor Napoleon gave his usual New Year's reception to the diplomatic body, and expressed his happiness that the past year had strengthened the bonds of peace, and was an augury for a long duration of peace and prosperity over the world.

—The Pope received the congratulations of the French army on the 1st inst. He returned his thanks, and said it would probably be the last time he could bestow his blessings on them. He feared the enemies of the Church would go to Rome after the departure of the French troops.

—The Fenian trial was concluded at Cork on the 24, and several more prisoners were convicted and sentenced. The trials of the remainder were adjourned to the 25th, and many liberated on bail. John McAfferty and W. McKay, being aliens, were